Geology Walks through Time in Shropshire: Art Walk

Saturday 6 June, 10.30-2.30
Stiperstones & The Bog

This will be an art walk with creative activities led by Shrewsbury artist, Andrew Howe with opportunities to study rock formations and the landscape in situ through drawing and mark making, using a range of materials including local earth pigments.

Those wishing to continue their creative activities in more comfortable conditions are invited to join Andrew after the walk.

All materials provided, but you are welcome to bring your own if preferred.

We will have at least one geologist on hand to explain some of the geology of the area.

Children under 18 must be accompanied by an adult.

The Bog Centre cafe will be open for tea/cake.

How to book your place: All walks are free but places are limited. Book via Sarah Jameson at admin@cpreshropshire.org.uk
