Distribution of Future Growth

5. Do you agree with the preferred spatial distribution of the proposed housing and employment requirements, which has an 'urban focus', identified in Section 4 of the Consultation Document?

'Urban Focus' responds directly to the County's Economic Growth Strategy and specifically reflects the objective to prioritise investment along strategic corridors and growth zones, utilising existing road and rail connections. It seeks to broadly distribute development across the County in the following manner: Strategic Centre (Shrewsbury) - around 30%; Principal Centres - around 24.5%; Key Centres - around 18%; Rural Areas - around 27.5%. (These centres are listed in Q6).
